THE MYSTERY OF GILGAL. BY JOHN HAY. The darkest, strangest mysterv

I've heern the tale a thousand ways. But never could get through the maze That hangs around that queer day's doin's; But I'll tell the yarn to youns.

Tom Taggart stood behind his bar, The time was fall, the skies was fair, The neighbors round the counter drawed. And ca'mly drinked and jawed.

At last came Colonel Blood, of Pike. And old Jedge Phinn, permiscus like, And each, as he meandered in, Remarked, "A whisky skin."

Tom mixed the beverage full and far, And slammed it, smoking, on the bar, Some says three fingers, some says two-I'll leave the choice to you.

Phone to drink put forth his hand; Blood draw'd his knife with accent bland, "I ax yer pardon Mister Phinn—
